Emerald Bay Road To Be Discussed At Tahoe Session

Spring Meeting Of C. of C. Scheduled Friday At Zephyr Cove

ZEPHYR COVE— State Highway Engineer J. W. Trask will meet with local civic and business leaders at Zephyr Friday to discuss a solution to the hazardous Emerald Bay traffic bottleneck.

Trask said that he hopes to present completed engineering studies on construction of an all-year highway along the western lake route.

Lake Tahoe basin residents have demanded protection against recurring landslides, which have blocked State Route 89 at Emerald Bay.

Some property owners have asked for an Emerald Bay bridge, which the state division of highways has estimated would cost about $5,000,000.

C. Don Huff, owner of Homewood Resort and president of the Lake Tahoe Sitrra Chamber of Commerce, declared today:

"The basic problem of Friday's meeting will be that of getting some type of an all-year highway on the west side of the lake.

"If this means a low level bridge, that will be fine. But I for one do not demand a bridge."

As designed by the state highway division, the bridge would be a sixty-two foot wide highway span providing for four vehicular and two pedestrian lanes and a seventy foot clearance of the navigation channel at the mouth of the bay.

A December landslide at the Emerald Bay route increased agitation for a bridge. The debris, which is still being cleared away, threatens to block Lake Tahoe vehicular traffic into the area far into the summer.

The Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce and numerous resort owners will be present at Friday's meteing.

Firms Employed To Plan Olympics

California's Organizing Committee for the Eighth Winter Olympics has engaged the combined architectural firms of Corlett & Spackman, A.I.A., and Kitchen and Hunt, A.I.A., to complete final master plans for the international sports festival that will be held at Squaw Valley in 1960.

Alan E. Bartholemy, executive director for the organizing committee, disclosed the selection following a meeting of the group at San Francisco Tuesday.

"The organizing committee studied eight proposals from major architectural and engineering organizations before the choice was made," Bartholemy declared.

"Their work will supplement the basic survey that was conducted prior to our progress report to the International Olympic Committee at Cortina, Italy, last January."

In addition to completing final designs for all facilities required to stage the games, the architects will assist in coordinating the design of private planning and development in the Squaw Valley area.

William Corlett, coordinating architect and project manager, stated that the final master plans will be completed for presentation to the IOC at tha body's meeting in Melbourne next November.

Truckee To Meet Fallon For Return Game On Sunday

The Truckee Athletic Club team traveled to fallon last Sunday where they were defeated by the merchants 12 to 10 in a game that was close all the way. Truckee had the lead four different times and were leading eight to seven when the merchants exploded for five runs on three errors in the last of the seventh inning to sew up the victory.

Louie Goicoa, pitcher for the local club, opened the 1956 campaign by demonstrating he has plenty of "stuff" and with support should win his share of games this coming season.

Other members of the team making the trip were Gordy Stewart, Al Wakefield, Mike Goicoa, Bill Jones, Ed Frates, Herb Howell, Les Davidson, Ralph Garcia, Mike Vieu, Don Mathis, and Andy Garcia.

Truckee will open the season at home this Sunday, taking on the same Fallon Merchants at 2 p.m. The club hopes that everyone will turn out for this contest as they will be out to avenge last Sundays defeat and a good game is promised.

Practice will be held tonight at 5 p.m. Anyone that would like to try out for the team will be welcomed.

Washoe Project May Start Soon

RENO— Action may be taken in the House of Representatives within the next few days on the proposed $43,000,000 Washoe Reclamation project, it was learned yesterday.

The house is expected to consider the measure which has already been approved by the senate.

The bill would authorize the construction of a series of dams and reservoirs on the Carson and Truckee drivers that would benefit western Nevada and nearby California by creating more electrical power, more irrigation water for dry years, and more flood control. It would also aid the fish and wildlife development program in this area.

Some heavy opposition in the House is anticipated because of some of the irrigation features in the bill. However, it has been supported by the bureau of reclamation, the department of interior, and all major interested groups in Nevada and California. It passed the Senate without a serious struggle.

ENLARGEMENT OF FIRE DISTRICT AT TAHOE IS PLANNED

TAHOE CITY— Al Henry, fire chief at Tahoe City spoke Tuesday at the meeting of the Rotary Club, held at Tahoe Inn on the tentative plans for enlargement of the Tahoe City Fire Protection District, stressing that the anticipated action will result in fire insurance rates reductions for the property owners in the area.

A petition is being circulated in the district embracing 4½ miles on the west side of Lake Tahoe to Blackwood Creek, 4½ miles down the Truckee River, 4½ miles east to Watson Creek.

The tax rate of 27c per hundred would raise $10,000 needed for operating costs. If the progressive move is successful a fire truck will be bought to meet fire emergencies in the embraced area.

Rebekah Lodge Is Now In New State District

Naomi Rebekah Lodge, No. 2 be came a part of district 21 at the meeting of the Rebekah State Assembly held recently in Los Angeles, the decision being reached during the time that the local delegates, Mrs. Charles Heller and Mrs. Charles Vind were present.

It was announced at the June 13 meeting, with Mrs. Laura Horman presiding, that a reception will be held at Dutch Flat June 22 honoring the district deputy president, Janet Wardell. It is hoped to have a good representation from the local organization.

Mrs. Ben King and infant daughter, Ellen Marie were honored at a shower during the social hours and Mesdames Eugene Welch, Wayne Philippi were refreshment hostesses.

Most Of 40 Will Be Four Laned For Use During 1960

Trask Predicts Highway 40 Will Be Completed For Games

J. W. Trask, state highway district engineer in Marysville said the state hopes to have most of the 118 miles of US Highway 40 four laned between Sacramento and the Nevada state line completed in time for the 1960 Winter Olympics.

He made his remarks on rebuilding US 40 over the Sierras at a luncheon in the Elks Temple at Sacramento attended by about 150 members of the Sacramento Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

He said 48 miles of the project have been completed or are under construction, plans have been completed or are under way on another 32 miles and project reports have been turned in on the remaining 38 miles.

The district engineer said the four lane highway will have a probable maximum grade of 5 percent and is being laid out for a speed of 50 miles an hour.

Three major construction problems, he said, are building a roadway which will handle traffic at a minimum cost to highway users, keeping damage to adjacent property at a minimum during construction and locating the route to serve communities along the way.

He said right of way acquisition has been kept at a minimum and in most cases the tax loss in land taken for the route will be more than offset by the increase in value of adjacent property.

Trask sair the division of highways has tried to give all county roads easy access to the highway and every effort has been made to give turnoffs in the middle of each community.

The district engineer said the completion date will depend on the amount of funds allocated for the work.

Second Fire For Season Reported

For the second time this season the U. S. Forest Service suppression crews have been called out to stop incipient fires, both man caused.

Sunday, a carelessly tossed cigarette started a blaze between Tahoe City and the fish hatchery along the shoulder of the highway.

On June 7th a trash fire got out of control near the state line at Lake Tahoe and it was necessary to call out the fire fighters.

Neither fire caused any damage, but both should serve as warnings that the forests and brush are drying swiftly and the danger of a major conflagation is at hand.

This week the forest guards from the district are attending a training class at Forest Hill and will return to their posts in the Truckee area tomorrow.

TRUCKEE BOY SCOUT TO GET HIGH HONOR

John Montano of Truckee Troop No. 7, Boy Scouts of America, is one of several boys in the Tahoe Area Council eligible for initiation into Canuku Lodge, Order of the Arrow, a national honor camping society which will hold its "ordeal" at Camp Pahatsi this weekend.

Camp Pahatsi is the Boy Scout camp near Soda Springs where members from three counties, Placer, Nevada and Sierra hold their annual festivities.

The initiation will consist of colorful Indian ceremonies, emphasizing the principals of the order, promoting good camping and fellowship.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Despite some published reports from people who are apparently entirely ignorant of the facts, the plans for the 1960 winter Olympic games at Squaw Valley are progressing on schedule— even ahead of schedule. Admittedly, it is a big job, one which requires concentrated preparations but the fact that bulldozers and contractors are not on the ground does not mean that the project is bogged down or is lagging. As a matter of fact, actual work on clearing ground and other necessary preliminary details are slated to start next week. Designers and engineers are outlining detail plans for facilities and have offered every assurance that a satisfactory progress report will be made at the IOC meeting this fall. It was never anticipated that such a big job could be done without some critical sharpshooting, but the assurance of those in charge that the work will be done in advance of the deadline and done in a manner which will be a credit to California, should provide headlines and critics should wait and see what can be done before blasting such an important propect.

Swim Schedule For Schools Announced

The summer swim program, sponsored by the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, will start at Beacon Hill and Donner Lake on July 2, and at Kings Beach on July 23.

The bus for the intermediates leaves Tahoe City at 10:20 and from Kings Beach at 11:45 a.m. and for swimmers, the bus leaves Tahoe City at the same times as those for the intermediates.

Intermediates not using the bus will meet at the beach from 11:50 to 12:35 and this also applies to the swimmers.

Miss Betty Lou Raker will be in charge of the program.

The club realized more than $100 from its car wash program recently. The money will be used to finace the installation of street designation signs here and at Gateway Park.

Planners Hope For Permanent Use Of Game Facilities

Preliminary Work Will Be Started Soon; Plans Being Rushed

Members of the California Olympic Commission, the Squaw Valley Organizing Committee as well as national and international Olympic officials favor the construction of all permanent facilities at Squaw Valley for the 1960 winter games so that the area can be maintained as a winter sports development.

This was brought out at a meeting of the commission held in San Francisco last week when Alan Bartholmey, executive director of the organizing committee, outlined his organizations schedule for the coming year.

The commission voted ample funds to provide for the first year's construction program, which is scheduled to be started next week when crews will begin clearing hillsides for the proposed ski runs. To what degree the work will be extended this summer is uncertain as there is considerable planning and preparation necessary before building can get under way.

Among the first items for consideration will be the installation of a sewer and water system. Engineers are currently working on the phase of the development with two or three plans being considered. The suggestion that a public utility district be formed was abandoned when it was revealed there are no registered voters in the valley. It therefore must be done through state financing with a return from private investors when the time arrives.

It has not been determined to what extent the other facilities required will be of a permanent nature, but those working on the program have expressed a desire to have all state built buildings and other necessities made to be long lasting, since one of the principal objects of the winter Olympics is to develop winter sports in areas where the potential is the best.

Bartholmey will be one of the main speakers at a meeting of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce at Zephyr Cove tomorrow and is expected to present some of the plans now being considered and will point out benefits to the region from the staging of the games here.

All five members of the commission, Charles R. Blyth, Allen Christensen, Reese Taylor, Stephen Royce and Walter Barrett, attended the San Francisco meeting to approve contracts between the state and the organizing committee so that work can progress.

An inspection of the Squaw Valley site by officials will be made late next week.

REV. OSMAN AGAIN NAMED PASTOR HERE

Selection of new leadership for renewed emphasis on reaching and serving persons outside the church was a highlight of the annual California-Nevada Methodist conference which closed at Stockton Sunday. Many changes in pastoral leadership were noted as Bishop Donald H. Tippett made assignments, including re-appointment of the Rev. Wesley H. Osman to Truckee Community Methodist Church, and appointment of the Rev. Earl Langguth of Elverta to Kings Beach Church. The latter will replace Rev. A. A. Covher.

The 600 ministerial and lay delegates selected by Rev. H. Baldwin of Santa Rosa as new executive secretary of evangelism, for an expanded program in this field. The Rev. Carl E. Walker of Delano was appointed Baldwin's successor as superintendent of Redwood Empire District.

For the first time, women were admitted to ministerial membership in the conference. One of the three was ordained, along with eleven men, while eight pastors with a total service of 289 years were retired.

Card Party—

Mrs. Harry Digesti was hostess on Monday evening when the guests enjoyed a card party. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Return Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Barrett and family have returned from Redwood City to make their home here.

Hospital Costs Up But No Increase In Tax Expected

Although additional expenditures will be required, including a five percent increase in virtually all hospital supplies, the budget prepared by the governing board and presented by J. J. McGlade, administrator, calls for no additional taxes for the coming year.

The budget calls for an expenditure of $181,700 of which total $141,975 will be returned from hospital income and miscellaneous items, leaving a balance of $39,725 to be raised under the 20 cent tax.

Hospital building repair will be up this year because of winter damage to the structure and $22,500 has been budgeted for this expenditure. Administrative and general expenses will total $36,250, while the largest item on the list is $37,550 for medical and surgical supplies and maintenance.

Food will cost $17,700, while laundry is estimated at $6,500, x-ray and radiology $17,750; pharmacy, $4,500; laboratory, $9,850; operating and delivery room, $9,100.

Other expenses include depreciation of $14,000; employees housing, $1,200; employees board, $2,500; medical records, $1,500 and miscellaneous, $500.

LITTLE LEAGUE IS OFF TO GOOD START FOR COMING SEASON

The Truckee Little Leaguers are off to a good start with every assurance that the season will be successful.

Mrs. Thelma Zuber, one of the managers of the Little League, reports a total of $173 in the treasury but points out that additional funds are required for the continued success of the program and urges everyone to chip in by filling the little contribution cans placed about the area.

Practice will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3 p.m. for the 9 to 12 age Little Leaguers and at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesdays for the Pony League, boys from 12 to 15. A bulletin board has been placed at Goodfellows giving practice times and other information for the boys.

Another meeting of the leagues and sponsors will be held Monday, June 25th in the basement of the Community Church at 8:30 and all parents are asked to make a special effort to attend.

In answer to inquiries regarding playing shoes, Mrs. Zuber reports that the Little Leaguers will play in tennis shoes and the Pony boys will use rubber spiked shoes. Coach Al Cavello has the information regarding the latter.

NEW FOLDERS FOR TAHOE C. C. READY

Don Huff, president of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce this week was distributing the first of 50,000 new folders which are just off the press for the promotion of the region.

The dark blue print on a light blue stock is quite attractive. The contents features the 1960 winter Olympics, gives hints on "Getting the most from your stay at Tahoe" and provides maps of the region.

Huff pointed out the fact that while the folders are not as elaborate as the old ones, they fill the current need and with emphasis on economy at present, they are quite suitable and adequate. "And", Huff added, "they are paid for."

BOARD MEETING

Because a quorum was not present, the meeting of the governing board of the school district slated for June 19th was postponed and has now been set for next Wednesday, June 27th at the high school at 8:30 p. m.

Some outside opposition to the route has been voiced and Senator Harold Johnson is expected to present the district's favorable reaction to the proposed route in case this opposition is voiced before the state board.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Now that the primary elections are over, the public perhaps can turn its attention to the mass of propositions which will be on the November general election ballot in November. There are enough of these to warrant some thinking about them from now until general election day arrives.

One of the most important items on the ballot will be Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 6. Ballot numbers have not as yet been assigned by Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan, so it is not known what this proposition will be called when the number is assigned later this month.

Briefly, SCA No. 6 is a measure which would permit the state to hire private architects and engineers when it deems such hiring necessary to keep state architectural and engineering work on schedule.

The measure is bitterly opposed by the California State Employees Association, which already has sent out letters to its members to pave the way for defeat of the proposition.

The state employees association, of course, is sparked by the state division of architecture, and together, they have smeared the proposition as being a big attack on civil rights, privileges and continuity of employment by civil service employees.

A reading of the proposed amendment, which came from a committee hearded by Senator John F. McCarthy, of Marin county, and which was passed unanimously in the state senate and with only seven dissenting votes in the house, reveals that the amendment does exactly what it says— merely permits the state to hire architects or engineers when the civil service staff can't handle the job.

One of the easiest ways to defeat a reasonable proposition such as SCA 6, of course, is to throw up a smoke-screen which in this instance is a threat of the return of the "spoilsmen" to California politics.

And throw this slogan, the California State Employees Association hopes to incense the people into believing that adoption of the proposed amendment will mean the immediate washing out of the civil service in the division of architecture and in other departments where engineers and architects are hired.

The CSEA plans to do this job in a big way. Already it has sought from every member a list of organizations to which members and families of members belong, the implication being that it will scare these other organizations into supporting defeat of the amendment by reason of the numbers of people involved.

The state employees, of course, have as much right to fight the amendment as any other citizen, but on the other hand, it would be refreshing if for a change, the people of California could proceed to make their own decisions without having to be influenced by the people who are drawing their salaries from taxes paid in by the people the amendment will benefit.

And from the bitter opposition to this minor amendment, it can be seen what would happen if anyone became brave enough to put a measure on the ballot wiping out civil services entirely, and starting all over again with a system which does not encroach upon the Democracy.

Governor Names New Athletic Commission After Mass Resignation

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Governor Goodwin J. Knight announced appointment of a new five man state athletic commission to replace the commission which resigned recently following investigation of boxing and wrestling irregularities in California.

Knight renamed Dr. Dan O. Kilroy, Sacramento, and S. Thomas Bucciarelli, Arlington (Riverside county) to the commission.

The new commissioners are Dean Bartlett Cromwell of Los Angeles, succeeding Edward I. Beck, Los Angeles; Douglas Hayden of Oakland, succeeding Joseph J. Phillips, San Francisco; and Jamie H. Smith, Los Angeles, replacing Norman O. Houston, Los Angeles.

Kilroy and Bucciarelli were reappointed to fill their original terms ending Jan. 1, 1958, and Jan. 1, 1959, respectively.

Cromwell's term will run until 1960. Hayden and Smith will serve until next Jan. 1.

Cromwell is a former University of Southern California and olympic track and field coach. He serves on the state recreation commission.

Hayden is a chief special agent for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in San Francisco.

Smith is a Los Angeles soft drink bottling company executive and represents the state on the Los Angeles memorial coliseum commission.

Fire Controll Campaign Brings Favorable Result

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Education of the public in prevention of forest fires is paying off in California despite increases in population and tourist traffic.

A review at the start of another tourist and forest fire season, of figures compiled by the state division of forestry showed that the number of man-caused fires has declined steadily since 1946.

Last year some 28,000 forest fires in California were touched off by man, compared with 36,000 in 1946. Nevertheless last year witnessed one of the most destructive forest fire seasons in the state's history.

This year the legislature has budgeted an extra $750,000 for combatting fires to prevent another destructive period such as occurred between August 28 and September 13 of last year.

William Fairbank, the division's education officer, said fire prevention conditions so far this year are favorable, with much moisture in mountain regions. But the peak of every season occurs in August and September, he pointed out.

Who starts man caused fires, how do they do it and where?

The division finds the chief offendres are local people. They started 47 percent of all forest fires during the past five years, while non-local people accounted for 35 percent, railroads and vehicles for 10 per cent, and children eight per cent.

Smokers are the primary cause of man's fires. Debris burners also are serious offenders, and a surprising nine per cent of man's forest fires are set deliberately.

Most of the fires begin in the wildlands— nearly half. About 20 percent start in inhabited areas and 20 percent along roadsides.

THE BEST OF RIDES—FOR FOLKS OR FREIGHT

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

by Ethel Joslin Vernon

Weather Changes

Well, I guess we spoke a bit too soon last week about the unvarying near-perfect weather of our nearly summer season. For on Thursday there was a sudden flip-back to weather conditions more resembling April, or March and the town's business suffered slightly while the visitors and tourists stayed in out of the rain. Drenching showers continued for an hour or two and then leveled off into a steady drizzle which lasted late into the evening. The day's rain was general throughout th eregion, and was very welcome in the forests, as it lessened the fire hazzards for a while at least. Weather observer Art Frodenberg registered .15 of an inch precipitation for the storm which he said is rather unusual for this time of year. Measurements taken of the lake following the rain showed the water level standing at 6228.77 feet above sea level. Frodenberg said that at this time the water gates at the dam are open into the Truckee River. This is sufficient to fill all the best fishing holes between Tahoe and Truckee, and keep rippled spaces at a good wading depth for fishermen in rubber boots.

Wikanders Return

Victor and Alice Wikander, Tahoe's well known back country pioneers, were up for a few days during the past week from their winter home in Oakland. They drove up in their new little German-made car, mostly to investigate the road conditions into the back country of the Rubicon region. Victor said they found the canyon road still snowed under, even below Miller Lake which is only about three miles up. He thought it would be at least a month yet before they can open their summer cabin on the island at Buck Lake and expect to spend the rest of the summer there in comfort.

Flights To Tahoe

Bill Bechdolt, Vice President of the newly organized Tahoe City Improvement Association, reports this week that to the best of his knowledge up to date the langdiscussed amphibian flights between Lake Tahoe and the bay region are now a certainty, and that the pier on th eTahoe City commons will be used as a base for landing and loading. Bechdolt said that according to his last information in the project, received through Robert L. Oates of the Holiday Air Lines Inc., that corporation plans to make three flights daily between Sausalito and the lake, landing at Bijou on the South End and at Tahoe City on the northwest. He said he has not yet been informed just when the flights will begin, but it will probably be soon, and planes are to continue them year around. The second meeting of the Tahoe City Improvement Association is scheduled t be held at the Community Center here on the evening of Thursday, June 21st.

X-Ray Unit

Mrs. Marie Henry, Ulacer County director of the health board for this area, was notified this week that the chest e-ray unit which is usually stationed here for a day or two at this season will not be will probably be in Truckee for a informant tells her that the unit brought to Tahoe this summer. Her day sometime this summer, date to be set later. It wll also be at the Placer County Fair in Roseville on August 11th and at the Twentieth District Fair in Auburn on Sept. 22nd. Each third Monday this summer, from 7 to 9 p.m. the unit will be open for chest e-rays free of charge, at Placer County Board of Health Center in Auburn.

Band Visits

Over the past weekend the Yuba City Union High School band made its annual visit to Tahoe City, in the course of its three-day vacation outing. Forty members of the 80-piece band were on hand with their instruments. Under direction of band master J. Wilson McRae they gave their usual, well-attended concert under the big pine on Front Street. They played the usual well known band music, ending the concert with the old favorite 'Semper Fidelis'. The concert took place on Saturday evening, and the bus load of visitors arrived here early Saturday and stayed till Monday afternoon.

Rotary Meets

At Harrah's Club on the south shre of Lake Tahoe last Wednesday evening 150 Rotarians from five Rotary clubs of northern California and Nevada joined in the annual spring dinner-meeting. Dinner was served in the main dining room there to members of the following clubs: the Truckee, Tahoe City and Brockway Rotaries, and the Carson City and Minden Nevada clubs. The North Tahoe Rotary Club was host on this occasion, and its president, Tom Armstrong, presided. President Armstrong introduced as speaker of the evening, Judge Frank Gregory, governor of Rotary International District 164, (of Carson City). In his speech the judge reviewed the varying speed of travel in general from horse-and-buggy days up to the present time. He told of the bygone times when primitive Indian tribes reconed travel-time by "one moon" or so many suns. H ethen spoke of the speed of modern aircraft of the present day, and said "The travel speed of today makes the people living in distant parts of the world seem like near neighbors." Following his speach the gathering of Rotarians were entertained by the music of Harrah's orchestra and two vaudeville acts. The Tahoe City Rotary's meeting schedule changes with the meeting of Tuesday, June 19, and will be held at noon on Tuesdays from that time on.

Employment Council To Schedule Meetings

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— The governor's advisory council on the department of employment, after meeting with Gov. Knight, announced it will meet every two months in various cities throughout the state to consider problems of administering unemployment compensation and disability insurance.

Sam Kagel, San Francisco, said the first meeting wil be held in San Diego July 10 and 11.

Subsequent meetings were scheduled for Los Angeles in September, Fresno in November, and San Francisco in January.

Kagel said the meetings will be in line with "Governor Knight's well-established policy of conducting state business as though it were in a department store window."

Preservation of national park resources is the basic requirement underlying all park management planning.

103 Million, anyone?

—that's what the Brewing Industry contributed to California's economy last year

The brewers and sellers of beer and ale paid over $16,200,000 in California taxes last year—sixteen million that would have to be made up somewhere else if the Brewing Industry hadn't taken over a big share of the load.

In addition, Californians who depend on the brewing industry for their livelihood—spent more than $87 million for living expenses.

Put 'em both together and that makes $103 million plus—in the form of lower taxes and higher profits for everyone in our state.

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

See Freddy Wofford tooling up and down Highway 40 in a brand new Volkswagon sedan. A high school graduation present from his mom and dad. I recall getting a high school graduation present, too, several years ago. Thought it was really something.... a Shaeffer life time fountain pen. It's still laying around someplace, but as I remember, it's lifetime was pretty short. Freddy had trouble selecting the color of his car. Two-tone or all black. Black was available for immediate delivery. Two-tone involved waiting a little while; that all black wagon has been mighty busy so far.

Ernie Tschopp has been up for several days cleaning up the remains of his service station and garage which was destroyed by fire early in the spring. Stopped by yesterday to say hello to him. Daughter "Smiley" was giving him an assist. I asked if he was still living in Sacramento. He answered a, "Nope, I'm up here". So, I guess he will be busy rebuilding this summer.

Elmo Moriano and his crew at Beacon Hill were mighty busy a few days ago. About eight chartered busses stopped, and Shriners by the hundreds started spilling off. All in all ,around 250 taking part in a buffet luncheon, on their way to Reno for a convention. This particular group from the Sacramento Temple.

Elmo's swimming pool is now open, and will be hte center of attraction for all the kids, and grown ups too, in the neighborhood; as well as headquarters for the Red Cross swimming classes that start July 2. That snow on the hill in back has a kind of chilling effect, but its very pleasant after the first cold shock.

Helen Reynolds has returned for the summer and opened her very spacious home. Lots of activity last weekend. Doctor Ralph arriving with eight or ten guests as well as son, Dick, with his wife and youngster. Their pool and tennis court will be operating very shortly, I imagine; so there will be lots of activity in that area of our mountain top for the rest of the summer.

The awarding of the 1957 Junior National Ski Championships to the Reno Ski Bowl is also big news. After competing on the Cannon Mountain "Ice Flow" last year, our local youngsters should do real well for themselves this time on their own kind of snow. Now is the time to start training for it, too. With some assistance and encouragement from all of the local people, we have several youngsters who can go all the way and wind up representing this country in the 1960 Olympics. It's something to go after kids, and adults too.

My old black Packard sedan, which withstood the rigors of last winters 20 feet of snow and ice, with the exception of a caved-in top, fell prey to someone who needed a water pump very badly. At any rate a big "E" for effort must be awarded, because sometime during the night, last night, a lot of dis-assemblying took place. We must report though, that the water pump is still attached to the motor; so I guess the rust formed from the cars' hibernation of all last winter made it just a little too tough to get out.

Fran Couillard has christened the new Jeep "The Bassinet". Yep, those little 4-wheel jobs are rock-a-bye babies at that.

Plans Being Made For Rerouting Highway 50 In South Tahoe Area

CARSON CITY— Nevada and California highway engineers scouted the south end of Lake Tahoe yesterday for a possible route to bypass the congested resort area which has grown up along U. S. Highway 50.

Huston D. Mills, director of Nevada's Highway Department, said that the conferences are strictly of a preliminary nature, however, since neither state has the money to d oanything about the situation at present.

"But we have to start planning for the future and at least acquire the needed rights-of-way before that whole area fills up." he said.

Gambling houses on the Nevada side of the line and hotels, motels and resorts on the California side often make the present two-lane road through the stateline area a monumental problem for traffic officers during the summer.

Nevada has banned parking for a full mile north of the casino area and state gambling authorities require new clubs to provide their own parking lots, but the rulings have done little to relieve the congestion at the peak of the season.

Placer County Workers Slated For Raise In Pay

AUBURN— Most county employees will receive a step increase in salary on July 1, as a result of action taken by the board of supervisors.

The raises will go to employees who complete another year's work on that date, and who have the recommendation of their department head.

Approximately 94 increases will be granted. Employees whose anniversary dates fall at other times of the year will not receive increases at this time, nor will those who have reached the final step in their present salary range.

KINGVALE LODGE IS UNDER NEW OWNER

NORDEN— Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane and their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartucco, all formerly of Sacramento have leased Kingvale Lodge owned by Martin Johnson of Sacramento, and are opening for business.

Lane has been a battalion fire chief in Sacramento for the past 9 years and previous to that was employed by a major trucking firm, coming over this route for a number of years.

Both Mrs. Lane and Bartucco had been employed by Sacramento county.

CAROL WILSON GETS SCHOLARSHIP OF $50

TAHOE CITY— Miss Carol Wilson, who graduated from Sacramento Junior College in June has been given the Lillian Taylor Thorpe memorial scholarship award of $50, with the recommendation from the music department of the school that the recognition be given for unusual musical talent.

Miss Wilson will spend the vacation period at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson of Lake Forest and will be employed at Tahoe City. Next fall the student will attend Sacramento State College.

The Fred Heggies who have been at Tahoe City have an address change to Oakdale.

The Col. R. C. Jones home at Carnelian Bay is opened for the season, the family arriving from Los Gatos.

Minimum Regulations For Public Utilities Are Demanded By Order

SAN FRANCISCO— The California Public Utilities Commission today issued an order setting up minimum service standards for 460 water utilities under its jurisdistion. The new rules should result in better service in the future for more than one million water users in this state.

The rules are the result of many months of study by commission hydraulic engineers to set up workable and practical operating utility practices and effective regulatory procedures. Later stages of this work were carried on in cooperation with representatives of the water utilities.

Rules are established for customer relations, the quality of water to be served, pressure to be maintained, as well as minimum standards of design and construction which will be in the public interest. The latter rules will safeguard against the installation of sub-standard water systems. Additionally, the rules are intended to govern utilities supplying nonpotable water from ditches, canals or other conduits.

PLAN AIR SERVICE TO LAKE TAHOE

CHAMBERS LODGE— Ernest Kettenhofen, operator of the New Chambers Lodge, announced plans today for a new air service by amphibious plane between Sausalito and the lodge, with a possible stop in Sacramento.

Kettenhofen said the service has been arranged by himself, Bob Law and Frank George and will be operated as the Commodore Air Line. He explained that if there is a demand for the service in Sacramento the amphibious plane will stop either at the airport or on the river.

Truckee Boy Weds in Washington—

Willard Painter, Bride Plan Honeymoon In Truckee After Rites

PORT ORCHARD, WASH.— White stock and pink snapdragons in the glow of a candlelight service decorated the Port Orchard Christian Church for the wedding May 5th of Miss Verna Mills, Port Orchard, and Willard Ray Painter. Miss Mills is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mills, Port Orchard, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Painter of Truckee, are the parents of Painter.

The bride was lovely in traditional white satin, trimmed with white lace. The lace was carried out on the bodice in a pinafore style that came to a V in the back. The overskirt, also of white lace, was bouffant at the sides. Her bouquet was of white carnations and white roses.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught on a crown of satin and lace to match her bridal gown.

The Reverend R. N. Olson performed the ceremony. Best man was Howard Painter, brother of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Virginia Neal, wore a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon lace and carried yellow carnations. The bridesmaids were Patricia Neal, who wore blue nylon lace and carried yellow carnations, and June Mills, sister of the bride, who wore pink nylon lace and carried yellow carnations. The flower girl, Linda Rae Ames, was dressed in a yellow nylon dress trimmed with black bows and sash carried white carnations.

Candle lighters were Melvin Mills, cousin of the bride and Newman Purvis.

Music for the ceremony was played by Mrs. James Dyson and Mrs. Donald Morrison sang "Because" and "The Lords Prayer".

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a grey satin dress with pink accessories. For her son's wedding Mrs. Painter wore a gray printed silk dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore pink rosebud carsages.

The reception was held in Myhre's Banquet Hall, where the decorations were red and white tulips with greens. Two silver services and the wedding cake decorated the reception table. The host and hostess for the more than 300 guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nelson. Cutting the wedding cake was Mrs. Victor Mills, aunt of the bride. The groom's cake was cut by Mrs. Juanita Bloomquist. Those pouring were Mrs. Thomas Filer, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. L. C. Molzahn. Mrs. Archie Neal was at the punch bowl. At the gift table were Mrs. Dale Brittingham, Mrs. Willard Ames, Mrs. Louise Neal, Miss Rita Ames, and Miss Helen Duke. Miss Pat Morgan took care of the guest book. Miss Lynn Brittingham passed the dream cake.

When the bride and groom left for their honeymoon in Truckee, she was dressed in a red jersey dress with white accessories with a corsage of white roses. Upon their return they are making their temporary home at 3739 G Street, Bremerton, Washington.

Highway Improvements Discussed At Meeting

NEVADA CITY— Western Nevada County state highway improvement recommendations as discussed at Wednesday's dinner meeting in Auburn with the state Chamber of Commerce officials, legislators, officers of the district and headquarters of the State Division of Highways, followed the announced policy of pushing for (1) Highway 49 work; (2) Highway 20 work; and (3) the Grass Valley-Nevada City freeway.

The Placer county recommendations also listed the work on Highway 49 as imparative and specifically called for "complete widening and realigning of the highway from near De-Witt Hospital to Grass Valley, including a new Bear River bridge.

Nevada County projects as submitted to the California Highway Commission in August of 1955 and comments by the State Highway department are: State Highway 49 improvement from Bear River to Rattlesnake Creek bridge— 7.3 miles— plans under way, A-1 priority; grade and surface 12 miles Highway 20 from Yuba County line to Grass Valley; nothing done but 2.1 miles between Pegar's Y and Rough & Ready; including the redecking and widening of Clear Creek and Oak Creek bridges; Highway 49 realign and widen from North San Juan to top of South Yuba River grade, no action; GV-NC freeway, rights of way acquisition being done.

Standard asphalt research helps bring taxpayers 3 miles of paving for the cost of 2

You are more comfortable, get there faster, when you drive on safe, modern roads of sturdy and resilient asphalt.

CROWDED HIGHWAYS waste motorists' time—and lives. To build more miles of better roads at lowest cost, highway engineers turned to asphalt paving for 85% of the nation's roads. They find asphalt costs 30 to 50% less than other pavements. It lasts longer, reduces headlight and sunlight glare, provides noiseless, comfortable driving. To help meet the nation's highway needs, Standard* has expanded its asphalt production across the country, now operates nine asphalt refineries.

Our scientists work with highway engineers on improved construction techniques which save millions of your tax dollars each year. This means more and better roads, to serve a nation on the move.

Engagement

The engagament of Miss Jeanene Johnson and Borue H. O'Brien was told to family and friends this week as the couple was visiting enroute to Portland, Oregon, former home of the bride-to-be.

O'Brien is an engineering student, presently studying at Los Angeles City College. His home is in Kings Beach, Lake Tahoe, where he attended high school before entering the U. S. Coast Guard.

Miss Johnson is employed as a secretary for Kaiser Aluminum in Los Angeles, where she has been living the past six months.

Happy Couple

A very beautiful wedding ceremony was held at our home in Kings Beach last Sunday afternoon when John Fredric Williams of Oakland, and Thelma Rudd, also of Oakland, took the marriage vows. The bride was very beautiful in a summer suit with a bouquet of orchids. Elsie and Margie Charrison were the witnesses. After the ceremony, refreshments were served. The happy couple has been honeymooning in Kings Beach and Reno before returning to Oakland where they will make their home.

Boot Camp

Kenneth Lavery and Davey Ashton depart for San Diego this weekend where they will attend boot camp. They boys joined the naval reserve some time ago and have been attending practice in Reno. They sure look swell in their white uniforms. Davey is on his way by car with a couple of boys from Reno and Kenny took the plane.

Sold

Had a visit from Mrs. Sarah Barnum yesterday and she informs me she has sold her home on North Avenue in Kings Beach to a Dr. V. Shaw. Mrs. Barnum has been a long time resident at the lake, and will remain here during the summer with her relatives.

Lost Child

A short lived scare of a lost child in Kings Baech last Sunday when a Mr. Griffith of Reno left his car by the post office for a few moments. Upon his return his young son was missing and upwards of a dozen men searched the area and finally found the boy taking in the sights pretty close at hand. It was a happy reunion you can imagine.

Top of the Hill

Crystal Bay was just crowded with activity over the past weekend. The North Shore Club and also the Bal Tabarin opened in a blaze of glory. Buckey Harris of the former and Tom Gurin of the latter did themselves proud as hosts. The Tahoe Biltmore will, I understand, open on the 22nd but their entertainment for which they are so famous will not commence until June 20th.

Convention

We had Al B. Broyer, district attorney, up over the weekend. He was accompanied by his beautiful wife. Broyer was mixing business with pleasure, being chairman of the entertainment committee of the District Attorneys convention which will be held at Brockway Hotel on the 27th, 28th and 29th. This will mean several hundred delegates and their wives from all over the state.

They're Here

The treasurers from every county of California are in session at the Tahoe Tavern in Tahoe City this week. A large gathering is on hand for the convention, this is the first time they have met in the area, and a good time is assured them. S. B. Dunton, treasurer of Placer County is in charge.

Placer Water Needs To Be Studied By Group

AUBURN— The board of supervisors requested William Bethell, as chairman of the Placer County Water Committee, to undertake a study of the ultimate water needs of the county.

Supervisor L. L. Anderson cited the need for such a study, after atending a meeting of the State Division of Water Resources in Sacramento at which water needs of the various counties were discussed.

It was pointed out that there were various estimates as to the needs of the county, stemming from the state, the soil conservation service and local groups.

The board requested District Attorney Al Broyer to name a member of his staff to work with Bethell's committee on the study.
